THE CONFERENCES.

The GENERAL CONFERENCE, our law-making body, which meets every four years, shall be composed of one clerical member for every forty-eight members of each Annual Conference, and an equal number of lay members. Of the lay members elected, one may be a local preacher. The clerical representatives shall be elected by clerical members of the Annual Conference, and the lay representatives by lay members.

The ANNUAL CONFERENCE is composed of all the traveling preachers in full connection with it, and four lay representatives—one of whom may be a local preacher—from each presiding elder's district. The lay members are elected by the laymen of each District Conference. Such members must be twenty-five years of age, and they must have been members of the Church for six years.

The DISTRICT CONFERENCE shall be composed of all the preachers, traveling and local, of the district, the recording stewards of the same, and of laymen, the number of whom, and manner of appointment, each Annual Conference may decide for itself. In compliance with this provision, the Holston Conference, in session at Abingdon, Va., in 1879, fixed the ratio at one delegate for every eighty laymen, to be elected by the Quarterly Conferences of the several pastoral charges embraced in the said district; provided, that no charge shall be entitled to more than eight, nor denied a less number than four, delegates. The District Conference meets annually.

The QUARTERLY CONFERENCE shall be composed of all the traveling and local preachers, including superannuated preachers residing within the circuit or station (whether without or within the limits of the Annual Conferences to which they belong), with the exhorters, stewards, trustees who are members of the Church, and class-leaders, of the respective circuits, stations, and missions, together with superintendents of Sunday-schools who are members of the Church, secretaries of Church Conferences, presidents of Senior Epworth Leagues, if eligible, and none others.

The CHURCH CONFERENCE consists of all the members of a particular charge, or class, with resident members of the Annual Conference. It should meet once a month.

Located at Greeneville, Tenn. Value of property, $7,000.00; paid on same, $3,000.00; interest on same, $750.00; improvements, (paid) $2,000.00; number of children received, 40; number of children provided with homes 18; number of boys received, 20; number of girls received 20. Ages of children, 18 months to 10 years. Expenses are met by contributions from Home Mission Societies, by individuals, by the Sweetwater Sunday School, and through the labor of the children on farm and garden. The work of the Home is done mainly by the children, who are quick to learn and who evince great interest in all that appertains to our success. The sad part of it all is the fact that so much of moral rescue work needs to be done, and almost entirely in those children not wholly orphaned.

A SCRAP OF METHODIST HISTORY.

The Centennial Celebration held at old Mahanaim Meeting House in Washington County, Va., near Saltville, was designed to commemorate the interesting chronological fact that the first Annual Conference of Methodism west of the Alleghany mountains was held at Keywoods, near this old church, in May, 1788. Drs. E. E. Wiley, R. N. Price, J. L. Buchanan, Jas. S. Kennedy and others, delivered addresses on sundry interesting phases of the early introduction of Methodism into the Holston country. Jas. S. Kennedy's address was an elaborate and carefully prepared paper on the origin and difficulties and triumphs of Methodism from the early settlement of the country down to 1840, beginning as far back as 1750. The Holston country has been a great battlefield for truth and a pure gospel; and Methodism has shared largely in these triumphs.

AN OVERLOOKED PAGE IN OUR DISCIPLINE.

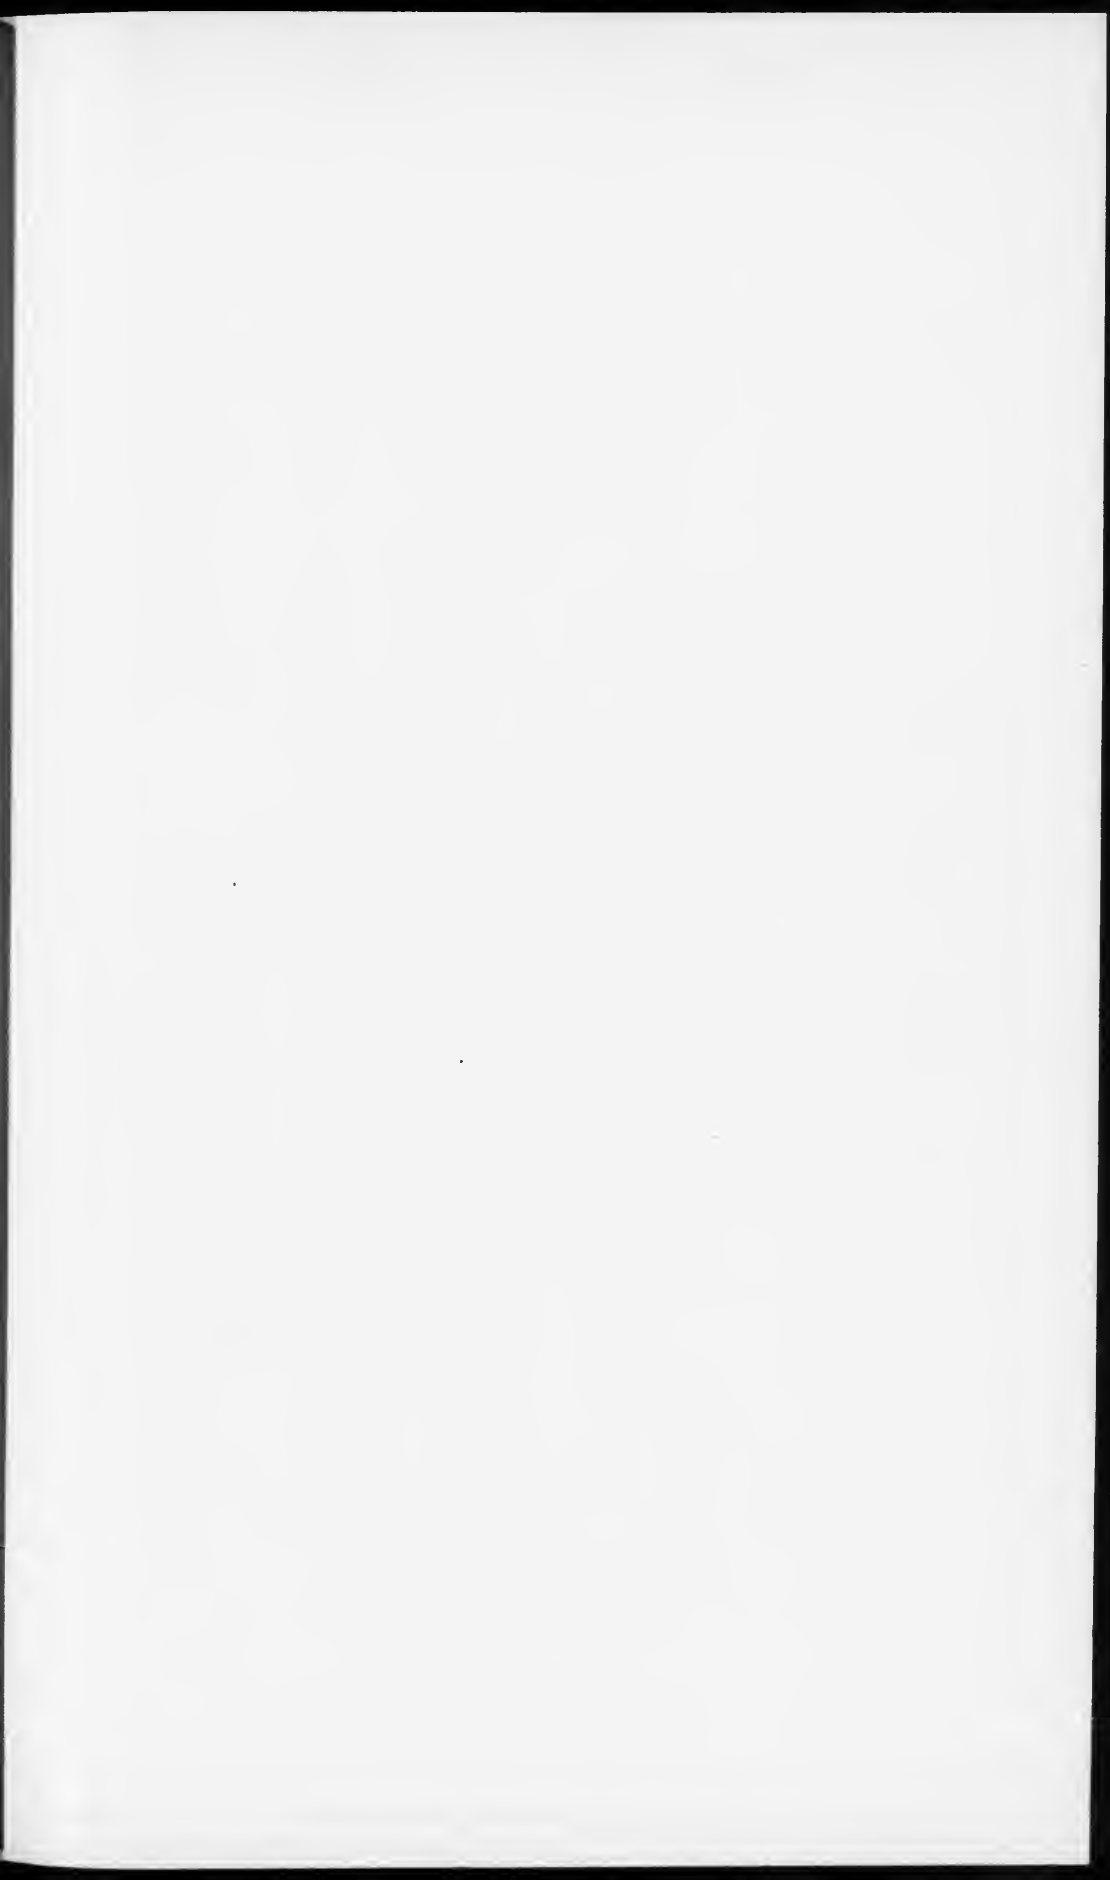

The General Conference of 1890 ordered the following resolution to be inserted in the Appendix to the Discipline, as a preface to the Address which was reported by the Committee on the Spiritual State of the Church, and adopted by the Conference:

Resolved, That inasmuch as the deliverances of our Bishops, as contained in their quadrennial addresses to the General Conference, from time to time, and as quoted at length by the Special Committee of Fifteen, have declared dancing, theater-going, card-playing, and the like worldly indulgences, to be contrary to the spirit of Christianity, and violative of the General Rules and moral discipline of our Church, as also of the vows of our Church members; we, therefore, heartily indorse the aforesaid deliverances as containing the just and correct interpretation of the law in the premises, and as such this General Conference accepts the same as having equal force and authority as if contained in the body of the Discipline.

The General Conference of 1894 adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Address on Worldliness contained in the Appendix of the Discipline of 1890 be continued in the Appendix of the Discipline of 1894.

See Address on page 327 of new Discipline.

CONFERENCE REPORTS.

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

Considering the work of the Epworth League in the Holston Conference your Board find much reason for encouragement. The work has grown in intelligent organization, and in methods of efficient work, and in numbers.

The Annual League Conference at Abingdon inaugurated a movement in which the young people pledge their support to the preachers in charge to help bring the assessments for missions up in full. To this movement we give our most hearty support.

We note with pleasure the presence of our League secretary and editor, Dr. H. M. DuBose, and pledge him our heartiest support and co-operation.

It gives us much pleasure to note the marked improvement of the Epworth Era. Considering its present enlargement, as well as the decided improvement in tone and editorial ability, we now most heartily commend the Epworth Era to all our preachers and people.

We most earnestly request all our preachers to co-operate with Mr. T. S. Hamilton, President of our League Conference, and with the District Vice Presidents in perfecting our district and city organizations.

J. C. ORR, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

Your Committee on the Bible Cause submit the following report: Of the amount collected for the American Bible Society the past year Radford District paid $34.74, Tazewell $4.25, Wytheville $34.64, Abingdon $52.44, Big Stone Gap $7.14, Morristown $52.92, Knoxville $36.20, Cleveland $20.15, Chattanooga $10.12, Sequachee $7.00. Total $259.60. This amount is in Lookout Bank subject to draft of D. W. Daugherty, treasurer, minus the receipts we hold for money collected by Geo. D. French, field agent. Besides this we have receipts for $2.23 paid to auxiliaries, making $261.83 collected in all for the Bible Cause.

No single charity of the Church is of more importance than this of the American Bible Society, for the Bible itself is the basis of all our beneficences. Chillingworth's postulate "The Bible, the Bible the Religion of the Protestants," means not the interpretation of the Bible in the hands of the clergy, but the blessed book itself in the homes of the people. We want the light of the followers of Jesus who bear forth torches in His name, but we want also the lamp of the Lord which is a lamp to the feet in the homes of the people. We want the law which shall continuously tell of human weakness and sin and of the remedy which heaven has provided, and we want it in heaven's own words. The American Bible Society through well directed agencies seeks to convey the words of God to homes of the rich and the poor, the white and the colored, to the alm-houses, to the prisons. In times of war as in times of peace this noble institution labors unceasingly to do good. It strives to put a Bible in the hands of soldiers and of sailors, and that without regard to nationality.

EMORY UNIVERSITY - 16743
THEOLOGY LIBRARY

It is not in our own land alone and among our own people that this society does such notably helpful work. Without the aid of this society we could not carry on our foreign missionary work, for one of the chief functions of the American Bible Society is to translate the Bible into foreign tongues. And the vastness of its enterprises in this respect is only equaled by the riches of its liberality.

The Church is awakening to some sense of its duty, and we trust the day is not distant when justice, though tardy, shall at length be done. Our law requires a collection in every congregation, and we will greatly help when we put the law into execution.

In view of the fact that some ministers must give attention to this work we are glad that our brother, Geo. D. French, has been appointed an agent of the society, and we assure him of our sympathy and love and pray for him. Success in his new work.

W. W. HICKS. Ch'm'n.

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Board that the disciplinary plan of holding missionary mass meetings be observed in every district in the Conference; that the pastors of the various charges throughout the Conference commence their collections for Missions in the early part of the Conference year.

The board heartily endorses the plan adopted by the Epworth League Conference to help the pastors in the missionary work, and would suggest that all the pastors of the conference heartily co-operate in this plan for the incoming year.

We recommend the appointment of Rev. Jas. A. Lyons as Conference Missionary Secretary and that his traveling expenses be taken from collections arising from mass meetings.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

We are glad to note an increasing interest in the Church Extension Work. We have encouraging reports from the Parent Board, while the improvement in the Holston Conference is very gratifying. We mention furthermore with pleasure, the heroic work of the Home Mission Society, and urge that all our brethren encourage the women in their work and try to turn all "local aid" and "patronage aid" societies into the authorized societies of the Church. The demands upon the Board this year have been very heavy, it having been asked for nearly two-thirds more than the amount it had to donate. We recommend therefore that this claim be placed before our people, on its merits, and that as strenuous an effort be made to secure this fund as is made for any other, and that it be brought up at least in proportion to other claims.

The Board has made the following appropriations:

Grayson Tower, Radford District $	50	Washington Sp'gs. Abingdon Dis. $	75
Draper, Radford District	35	Meadow View, Abingdon District.	85
Vine's Chapel, Radford District.	33	Riverdale, Knoxville District	90

New Hope, Wytheville District..	35	Dunlap Church, Spring City Dis...	80
Memorial, Abingdon District	40
Russell Memorial, Abingdon Dis..	175	Total amount appropriated..	$1,240

The Parent Board of Church Extension asks our Conference to raise $4,000.00 the incoming year and we make the following apportionment of the same:

Radford District, $464.00; Tazewell District, $442.00; Wytheville District, $480.00; Abingdon District, $460.00; Big Stone Gap District, $270.00; Morristown District, $437.00; Knoxville District, $500.00; Cleveland District, $235.00; Chattanooga District, $500.00; Spring City District, $212.00. Total apportionment, $4,000.00.

SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Your Committee on the Spiritual State of the Church report as follows: We would urge upon our people, and urge our preachers to emphasize that high type of personal piety for which Methodism has ever been distinguished. In Methodist theology and hymnology every phase of experience finds expression from the contrite sinner returning from his ways, to the most seraphic communing of the ripest saint. Examples are not wanting in the annals of Methodism of truly apostolic piety. So that we would be false to the tradition of our fathers no less than to the Holy Scriptures did we not cherish a high ideal of Christian life and experience. This has always been our glory. Our avowed purpose is to "spread Scriptural holiness over these lands." We do not believe that the Church has drifted away from one of its cardinal teachings and chief purpose. We rejoice that a full salvation is proclaimed. That a complete deliverance from sin is held up as the privilege of the sons of God. That entire setting apart of body, soul and spirit unto God, and holiness in all manner of conversation is the standard alike of pulpit and pew. True, if we look around we are grieved to see many whose lives do not correspond with their profession, many who are unconsecrated and worldly. But we do not believe this is due altogether to a departure from sound doctrine. May it not be that we need to put more life and energy into the presentation of it? Wherever strife and division have occurred we believe it has been due to laying too much stress on theories, and not enough on practical godliness. While we may differ reasonably and charitably as to theories and opinions, we cannot differ greatly as to the standard of holiness set forth in the Holy Scriptures, and by all our standard writers. Methodists are all agreed as to the demand of an entire consecration to God. That the blood of Christ cleanseth us from all sin, and that there is a blessed fullness in Him for all who believe. Then let us hold our opinions charitably, and be a unit in stressing holiness without which no man can see the Lord. Let us avoid anything that will lead to misunderstanding and strife. Let us love one another. Any other spirit is surely not of God. Let us measure ourselves constantly by the "word of God, which is the only rule, and the sufficient rule, both of our faith and practice."

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Your Committee on District Conference Records make the following report: The Record from Chattanooga was not before us. The penmanship in all the books is good, except in that of Knoxville and Morristown Districts, in which it is only fair. In the Tazewell District Record the spelling is defective. All of our secretaries have been very attentive to the rules of rhetoric. There is not a badly kept book in the lot. We congratulate the secretaries.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your Committee on Books and Periodicals submit the following:

The report of the book agents of the publishing house shows a gain in assets for the year of more than fifty thousand dollars. We find also that notwithstanding the terrors of pestilence, war, and the uncertainty of public policy, the business of the house since April first of this year has been considerably better than during the corresponding months of last year. All this we regard as a fine showing.

Our Sunday-school literature, edited by Dr. Atkins, we regard as equal to the very best, and we urge upon our people its use in all our schools.

Our Methodist Review, The Review of Missions, "Our Homes" and The Woman's Missionary Advocate meet all the requirements of their particular fields, and are steadily growing in excellence.

We are glad to be in position to commend to our Epworth Leaguers everywhere The Epworth Era. Dr. DuBose is speaking in no uncertain sound for our Church, and is making a paper that our young people cannot be without, and will not be without if once put into their hands.

We give our unqualified endorsement to the Nashville Christian Advocate, and most earnestly urge the preachers to place it in the homes of all our people.

In reading report of Joint Committee of the Midland Methodist we find 4,500 subscribers from Holston Conference and 1000 from the Tennessee Conference. Your Committee submit for your consideration the following resolutions:

First.—That we congratulate the Church on the successful management of the Book Concern, as evidenced by the increased profits of $4,697.19 of the last quarter, over the corresponding quarter of last year, and that we put forth every possible effort to increase the efficiency of our Publishing House in the circulation of our Books and Periodicals.

Second.—That the mechanical makeup of the Midland Methodist is excellent; that we recognize in the editor a man of unusual ability, and we believe in the freedom of the press and expect our editor to express his views on all current events; but the editorial management of the Midland Methodist has not been satisfactory. We do not concur in the commendation given its editorial management by the Joint Committee, nor do we believe that the spirit of its editorials conserve the peace and harmony of the church.

Third.—That the Revs. S. D. Long, J. A. Lyons and Z. T. Godwin be appointed as the Publishing Committee from Holston Conference to act in conjunction with a like committee from the Tennessee Conference in the control of the Midland Methodist.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Oral or written reports were received from the following schools: Emory and Henry, Martha Washington, Sullins, Centenary, Pryor Institute and Princeton Academy. From the information gotten from these reports we conclude that these schools are doing good work in the field of Christian education and receiving a fair patronage. Emory and Henry had more pupils last year than for any of the six years last past. Her income was sufficient to meet current expenses, but not to pay the interest on bonds. The State of Virginia holds a claim of $8,295 on this property. Through the efforts of Dr. Waterhouse, the last Legislature of the State was induced to pass a bill authorizing the Chairman of Public Works, for various considerations mentioned in said bill, to cancel this claim provided the College would pay $2,000 by November 1, 1898. To secure the benefits of this very generous offer, and to meet the other debts of the Church, your Board passed the following resolutions:

(1.) That Dr. Waterhouse be authorized and requested to negotiate a loan of $2,000, with which to pay the State debt, and that he take the field and raise the $2,000 to pay the loan. (2.) That he continue his canvass for the college, securing all the special donations he can to meet the remaining indebtedness of the college, according to the plan already inaugurated by the Board of Trustees and endorsed by the Conference at several previous sessions, and that we pledge our hearty sympathy and co-operation to this end. The indebtedness of this school is now $38,000—bonded.

Martha Washington had a prosperous year for 1897-98, and has opened well the present session. This school is paying expenses and something on its debt, annually, out of its current income. A strong and well selected faculty under the presidency of Rev. W. M. Dyer, A. M., are in charge of this excellent school. The debt on this school is now $22,000.

A report from the Trustees of Sullins College gives the following facts: That Dr. D. S. Hearon resigned the presidency last commencement, and that Dr. S. N. Barker was elected to fill the vacancy. He took charge in June and has spent $4,500 in improvements on buildings and grounds, in new furniture, electric lights, etc. The faculty is ample and well adapted to work. Rev. D. Vance Price is agent. The present term has opened auspiciously. No debt. We recommend that J. T. Frazier be appointed curator in place of G. D. French, who goes to the American Bible Society work.

Centenary closed a very satisfactory term last commencement, graduating twenty young ladies. There were 110 boarding pupils. The present term 103 boarding pupils have already matriculated. This number would have been much larger but for the fact that the quarantine against yellow fever coming, in many of our Southern cities, just at the time of opening, cut off a considerable number who had already engaged rooms. Some of these may still enter after frost comes. Your Board was especially pleased to learn that the indebtedness of this school has been reduced over $6,000 by the liberal donation of its friends at home, leaving the debt now of only $13,300, which is bonded. The property is leased to Rev. J. A. Stubblefield for an amount sufficient to pay the interest on the bonds, pay for insurance and keep up repairs. The building has been renovated throughout and much new furniture and electricity put in. This school is well equipped and has an excellent faculty.

Our two training schools, Pryor Institute and Princeton Academy, are having gratifying success, and are doing fine work in their respective fields. These schools are not in debt.

Your Board was pleased to have a visit from Drs. Hammond and Tigert, who explained the purposes and plans of the General Board to raise $1,500,000 for educational work, in accordance with the action of the late General Conference. On this subject the following action is recommended:

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the purpose and plans of the General Board to raise $1,500,000, as explained by Dr. Hammond (see plan as published), and pledge our earnest co-operation in the work. But at the same time we beg the General Board to so modify its plans as to this Conference as to leave with us all monies raised under the operation of the plan, till we have paid the debts on our own institutions. That we appoint Dr. E. E. Hoss to present and press this petition before the General Board.

We direct that the loan of $2,000, mentioned above, be paid out of the first money that is raised on the general plan. And after that, all monies raised shall be pro-rated among the schools to which the M. E. Church, South holds a title in fee simple, and which are under its control at the time of distribution, in proportion to their indebtedness at this time. Provided these schools have their charters so modified as to prohibit, forever, the creation of a debt on the property.

Your Board is profoundly impressed with the importance of the work of raising $1,500,000 by the concerted action of the whole Church for educational purposes. We believe that no enterprise of more deep-seated and wide-reaching importance has been undertaken by the Church in this last half century. And we beg the whole Church to lay-to with might and main, with prayer and preaching, much and earnest, until the glorious work is completed and the cap-stone be laid on with shoutings of grace unto it. To this end we suggest the appointment of W. S. Neighbors, secretary of Conference, who shall give his entire time to the work. And that the matter of salary and methods of raising it be left to the Board of Education for this quadrennium.

We request that the presiding elders be appointed district secretaries, to take general oversight of this work, and in connection with the pastors, see that the plan of the General Board is carried out in every charge as far as possible, co-operating with the Conference Secretary of Education.

We recommend that S: T. M. McPherson be appointed financial agent for Martha Washington College.

That J. E. Wolfe and C. T. Davis be appointed students to Vanderbilt University; L. O. Adams, T. F. McCary, and H. S. Booth students to Emory and Henry College.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

The Board would emphasize the importance of magnifying Children's Day on the part of all our preachers and people. It should be made both interesting and profitable. In this connection we do most heartily commend to the attention and confidence of our preachers and people and educators, the work of the General Board of Education, and the valuable instructive literature published under its auspices for gratuitous distribution. Order and distribute it among the homes of our people.

EDUCATIONAL DAY.

The Board recommends that the third Sunday of April be observed as our Educational Day, on which our preachers shall preach on the subject of Christian Education, and take the collection assessed for education, if practicable.

TEMPERANCE.

Your Committee on Temperance beg leave to submit the following report: We are glad to note that the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, stands in the front ranks, if not in the lead, of all the great evangelical denominations in its undying opposition to the soul-destroying vice of intemperance. The outspoken position of the Church has so enlightened the minds of our people on the evils of strong drink, that in the business circles responsible positions cannot be held by those who drink. In many places in our own beloved “Holston” the curse is being driven out by public sentiment which has been produced by teaching our people to believe that it is a crime against the State, our homes, and God, to manufacture or sell beverages to damn our brother. But while we have gained many victories over the accursed demon of strong drink, the warfare is but begun. The enemy is strongly entrenched in our beloved land. It is a burning shame on the civilization of the nineteenth century that there are 121,000 licensed saloons in the United States and many of these in the shadow of our Church steeples. Therefore be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference that every citizen, as well as every Christian, should use his utmost influence to eliminate this evil.

J. A. H. SHULER, Chairman.

D. P. HURLEY, Secretary.

MEMOIRS.

HENRY P. WAUGH.

Henry P. Waugh was born in Monroe county, Tenn. He was reared in a Christian home, his parents being strict members of the Presbyterian Church, who had family prayers night and morning. In his youth he was powerfully converted at a camp meeting held by the Cumberland Presbyterians. At this time he felt called to preach. Soon after his conversion he went to Grayson county, Va., and was employed as a clerk in a store. There he joined the Methodist Church. This was about December, 1844. He removed to Wilkesboro, N. C., in 1848, and continued in the mercantile business. He was licensed to preach at Rocky Spring Camp Ground, on the Taylorsville circuit, Sept. 3, 1853. As a preparation for his life-work he spent some time at Olin Institute, Iredell county, N. C., then under the presidency of the Rev. Baxter Clegg, D. D. In the fall of 1854 he was employed as a supply on Mechanicsburg circuit, Holston Conference, where he had great success in the conversion of souls. He was received on trial in Holston Conference in the fall of 1855. His first work by Episcopal appointment was Kingsport circuit, on which he had considerable success. On this circuit he made the acquaintance of Miss Barbara G. Everette, an excellent Christian woman, who, two years later became his wife.

After his first circuit his appointments in Holston Conference were the following circuits: Saltville, Macon, Asheville, Philadelphia, Estillville, Powell's Valley, Newport, Jonesboro, Greeneville, St. Clair, Rutledge, Morristown, Maynardsville, Teuton, Washington, Knox, Lenoir, Kingsport, Rye Cove, Bristol.

He was transferred to the Alabama Conference in 1864, where he remained until 1871, when he was re-transferred to Holston Conference. In 1862 he was appointed Chaplain in the Confederate army, where he remained two years. In the army he was assigned to duty in the 64th North Carolina regiment. While he was on the Asheville circuit, 1860-61, he was sadly bereaved of his excellent wife. December 3, 1863, he was married to Mrs. Mary A. Proctor, who survives him. In 1886 he was granted the supernumerary relation. The same relation was given him the second time in 1889, but he was employed on the Athens circuit. In 1890 he was placed on the superannuated roll, and held this relation until God said, come up higher. The first year of his superannuation he took charge of the Sneedville Mission in place of the preacher who failed to go to his work. This hard work closed his regular itinerant career. Though a superannuate for a number of years he loved to preach, and did preach at every reasonable opportunity. He was never more at home than in revival work. He was a man of prayer, a spiritual man, and though he was not an ambitious homilist, his plain, Scriptural home-thrusts were always in the power of the Holy Ghost. His sermons as well as his contributions to the paper were uniformly characterized by common sense, simplicity and directness. His success in winning souls to Christ on most of his pastoral charges was what might be termed phenomenal. Great numbers were brought to Christ by his spiritually powerful preaching, faithful pastoral work and holy example. He was strongly attached to his friends, and while the infirmities of age disqualified him for pastoral work, the itinerant fire that had so long burned in his soul could not be extinguished. He made annual journeys through his former fields, where he renewed old friendships, pleaded to the people and conducted revival meetings. Fully alive to the evils of intemperance, he was an active temperance reformer and an avowed prohibitionist. He had a talent for business, and, though his salaries were always small, he reared a family and kept out of debt and his credit was gilt-edged. He was not law-honest, but honest from principle.

He was stricken with partial paralysis April 23, 1898. He was anxious to live to greet the brethren at Conference; but when it was apparent that God had ordered differently, he beautifully acquiesced in the divine will and fell on sleep July 11, 1898. Mrs. Waugh, as pure and honest a woman as there is in the Church, stayed by his bedside and ministered to him faithfully until his soul dropped this mortal coil. Distinguished for devotion to her sick neighbors, she concentrated her warmest sympathies and kindest assiduities upon the mournfully pleasing task of smoothing his dying pillow, and mitigating the pains that broke his way to God.

R. N. PRICE.

JAMES A. DAVIS.

James A. Davis was born at Pleasant Hill, Smith county, Va., April 12th, 1825, and died at Emory, Va., June 30th, 1898, aged seventy-three years, two months and eighteen days.

His parents were pious, industrious, energetic and influential people. His father, Maj. Jos. W. Davis, was a man of public spirit who served his county and his State through many years of trust and responsibility. This son, James A. Davis, was converted at old Asbury Camp Ground on Cripple Creek in Wythe county, Va., when thirteen years of age, and when fourteen was entered as a student in Emory and Henry College, where he graduated in 1845. His collegiate training extended through six years and was of the very best quality. After graduation he spent a short time on his father's farm and then returned to the College at the call of the trustees to take up the work of a tutor in the institution. He was studious, enthusiastic, and progressive as a teacher, and steadily worked his way up to the professorship of the Chair of Natural Sciences, which he held for many years and of which he was professor Emeritus at the time of his death. He was licensed to preach some time before the date of his graduation, and after serving the Church as a local preacher several years was received into the Holston Conference at its session in Marion, Va., October, 1857.

He was never appointed to a pastoral charge, but so long as he was on the effective list served the Church as a teacher in her schools. He was highly respected and much loved by the hundreds of pupils he taught in Emory and Henry College, and no man ever connected with that institution watched the career of his boys in after life with more paternal interest than Prof. James A. Davis. The roll of their names oft passed under his eye and he oft took up his pen to write some of them letters of greeting and kindly remembrance.

As a preacher he was faithful in making and using opportunities. His utterances from the pulpit were distinct and earnest and grew in unction to the end of his life. As a critic he was generous; as a friend, constant; as a business man, economical and upright; in giving, liberal. He was a friend of the poor and needy, and no class of his community will miss him more. He knew when he had entered upon the beginning of the end, proceeded at once to get his house in order, talked as only the children of God can talk when this life's sun is setting, and departed as one "who wraps the drapery of his couch about him and lies down to pleasant dreams." A wife and two children survive to mourn their loss.

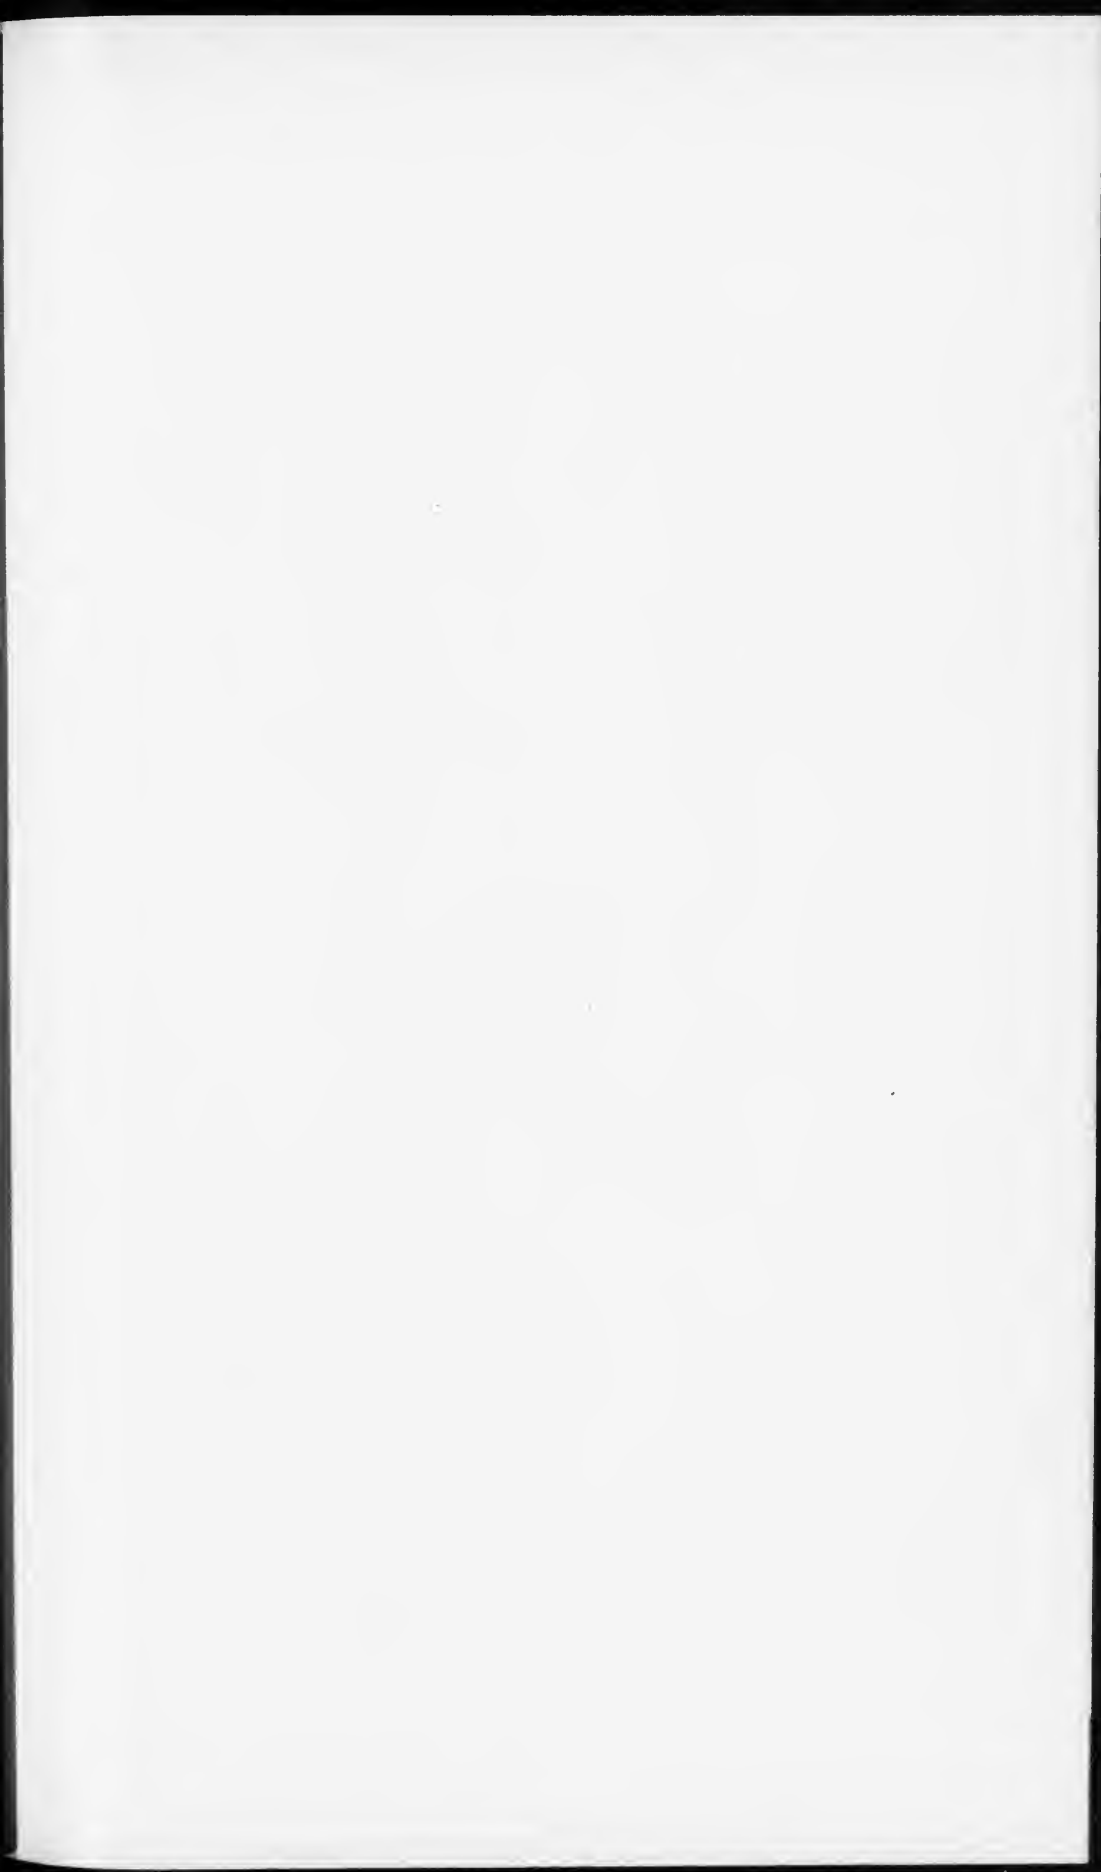

R. G. WATERHOUSE.

MRS. L. K. HAYNES.

Manannah Price Love was born near Kingston, Tenn., November 13th, 1837, and died at Tazewell, Va., June 7th, 1898. Her father died when she was but an infant, hence her moral and religious training was left in the hands of her mother, who was a consecrated Christian and member of the Methodist Church. She was converted in early girlhood, and united with the Methodist Church. On November 8th, 1883, she was united in marriage to Rev. L. K. Haynes of the Holston Conference M. E. Church, South. She cheerfully went with her husband to the following charges where her influence was always recorded for good: Pikeville circuit, Weaverville circuit, N. C., Jonesville circuit, Va., Pearisburg circuit, Va., and Graham Station, Va. In all these charges she was active in the various departments of Church work, as far as her strength would allow. When the time came for her husband to superannuate, her grief was quite as great as his. She loved the itinerancy. The Christian experience of Sister Haynes was bright and satisfactory, bringing joy and comfort in life's darkest hours. On June 8th, 1898, we laid her body to rest in the cemetery at Tazewell, Va., Rev. I. P. Martin conducting the service, assisted by the writer. The writer wishes to bear his personal testimony to the high Christian character and great worth of the deceased. Naturally of delicate constitution she in later life became a great sufferer, but amid it all her faith was unwavering. We confidently expect to meet her where parting is no more.

Strong Son of God, immortal Love,
Whom we, that have not seen thy face,
By faith, and faith alone, embrace,
Believing where we cannot prove.

Thine are these orbs of light and shade;
Thou madest Life in man and brute;
Thou madest Death; and lo, thy foot
Is on the skull which thou hast made.

Thou wilt not leave us in the dust:
Thou madest man, he knows not why,
He thinks he was not made to die;
And thou hast made him: thou art just.

Thou seemest human and divine,
The highest, holiest manhood, thou:
Our wills are ours, we know not how,
Our wills are ours, to make them thine.

Our little systems have their day:
They have their day and cease to be:
They are but broken lights of thee,
And thou, O Lord, are more than they.

We have but faith: we cannot know;
For knowledge is of things we see;
And yet we trust it comes from thee,
A beam in darkness: let it grow.

AN EDITORIAL WORD.

The Holston Annual for 1898 does not hope to be without flaws. It would like to be, but that is another matter. The critic who thinks the thing can be done, may step into our shoes. The details are numerous to the point of dizziness. The secretary has "camped on the trail" of the work, and believes that some improvement has been made. For the statistical tables he, of course, cannot speak, except to say that proof was twice carefully read by copy. Statistical secretaries have a prodigious task, and deserve thanks far more than censure. The pictures of "Holston Preachers" were not selected at will, but in order on chronological roll. A good many other brethren were written to, but they did not respond. As usual, the Directory is made up partly by guess-work. It seems impossible to get the preachers to respond in time. Some changes were made in the Radford District after the appointments went to press. These changes appear only in the Directory. The name of Alonzo Monk was, unintentionally, left off the chronological roll.

The price of the Annual is fifteen cents. Preachers who receive packages by express are to deduct charges from sales. Money paid at Morristown was for last year. If the brethren will put one-twentieth of the work on selling this edition that the secretary has in getting it out, and will remit promptly, the publishing fund will be sufficient for another year's issue. If you appreciate the work, sell every copy sent you, and order more. That is the language that touches.

The Annual has solicited a few advertisements, and the friends who favor us this year are cordially commended to the attention of all our readers. If you trade with any of them, be kind enough to say that you saw their name in the Holston Annual.

SUBTLE AS A SMOULDERING FIRE

are the germs of "a cold." Unchecked, they permeate every part of the system, impair every function of the body, and endanger life. Sometimes a vigorous circulation will throw off these ill effects; but it is a perilous chance to trust to. The tendency is to take some chronic form.

You know how often treacherous "little colds" run into Pneumonia, Pleurisy and La Grippe—how suddenly the children are stricken with Croup and Catarrhal Fever, and how Neglected Colds, in old and young, run steadily to Low Fevers, Bronchitis and Consumption.

For all these disorders, JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT is the cure. It works marvelously often in extreme cases; but it is wiser to make sure by taking it in the early stages, when a few doses will usually do the work.

For Women who are Run Down with overwork and worry—who are nervous, weary, discouraged; and For Men, suffering from Dyspepsia, with uncertain appetite, who keep losing flesh, and growing weaker all the time, the Strength-Giver, JAYNE'S TONIC VERMIFUGE will turn the scale.

Prepared only by Dr. D. JAYNE & SON, Philadelphia.

For sale by Druggists, Agents and Dealers the World over.

Ask your druggist for Jayne's Medical Almanac—FREE. It describes the symptoms of most human ailments, and outlines the method of cure.

AN EDITORIAL WORD.

The price of the Annual is twenty cents. Deduct express charges, and send balance to publisher as soon as the copies are sold. The edition is 3,000. Every copy ought to be disposed of. Let the preachers make a special effort to do so. Should they fail, after an honest effort, please notify the publisher.

Among the pictures of preachers and preachers' wives who have died during the year, that of Mrs. W. H. Price does not appear. The publisher tried to get a photograph of her, but failed.

If the Annual has errors in it, please write to the publisher about them, that he may profit thereby. If you appreciate what has been done, show it by selling and ordering more copies.

J. A. BURROW.
